

In Nuremberg, Germany, Christians attacked and burnt Jews during the black death.

People known as flagellants whipped themselves during the black plague.

Plague victims washed themselves in urine to stop the disease.

If you were rich enough you could afford crushed emeralds to cure yourself of the plague.

Saint Borromeo assists plague victims